STUDENT COUNCIL

STUDENT COUNCIL OFFICERS

Barber, president; Johnson, vice-president; Smith, secretary; Thompson, treasurer.

Since the first of school when the campaign for vice-president started, our Student Council has sponsored numerous activities, such as school dances, W. P. A. Week, and a carnival in the gym.

Besides these, they have sponsored the project of sending money to the school in Beaugency, helped in the Community Clean-Up Campaign, and amended the high school constitution.

The officers, of whom we are very proud, are Jim Barber, Bill Johnson, Dorthy Ann Smith, and Richard Thompson.

Seated: Edwards, Prigmore, Mr. Snyder, Scott.

During this year the Kayettes, under the sponsorship of Miss Lafferty and Miss Broadie, have engaged in numerous activities. Throughout the year they have sent money, clothing, and Christmas cards to our foreign affiliate in Beaugency, France. The highlight of the year was the highly successful Kayette Week from March 19 to March 24 ending with the Annual Mother-Daughter Banquet.

Lead by their very fine officers—Jean Bell, Dorothy Ann Smith, Lea Large, and Marlene Dickerson—Kayettes this year had a membership which included nearly every girl in E. H. S., and their various activities attest to their lively interest in their organization.

Row 1—Hart, Cameron, Edwards, Prigmore, Scott, Carroll, Burns, Ridgeway, Richey, Sholders, Dunham, Kroph, Sewell. Hi-Y is a group of young men who have banded together for fun and Christian Fellowship. This organization under the leadership of E. E. Snyder has functioned well for several years, and we hope will continue for many more.

One of the highlights of the year was the annual banquet served by the mothers of the members. The Hi-Y started a campaign in El Dorado to secure a miniature Statue of Liberty for our community.

The officers for 1950 are Don Prigmore, president; Dick Crist, vice-president; Bill Edwards, secretary-treasurer.

HELLCATS—Standing: Riggs, Peal, Gamble, McDonald. Seated: Dennis, Leach, McCoy, Brant, Robinson.

The high school intramural set-up, sponsored by Jim McDonald, enables students of E. H. S. who do not have ability or time to compete in varsity athletics to take part in competitive basketball. Dick Crist's team won the intramural championship this year.

The Hellcats are a natural outgrowth of the intramural system. Composed of boys who show talent, they compete with the best teams of El Dorado and surrounding communities. This year as always they had an impressive record.

TRACK

Come spring and warm weather, many boys are attracted to the track field. This year was no exception as several score of senior high school boys participated in track and field events.

The squad this year proved to be of better quality than the ones of years past. After winning several meets and placing high in another, they are expected to finish with an exceptional record.

Not only in spring is the interest high. Each fall a number of boys turn out to run on the cross-country team, which, last fall, placed third in the K. U. Cross Country Races.

This spring, as every spring, a number of boys turned out to participate in our national sport. The baseball season was launched on March 30 with a defeat at the hands of Winfield. Recovering rapidly, the Wildcats easily defeated Plainview and went on to win a number of their remaining games. Jim McDonald, coaching both the "A" and "B" squads, did his usual commendable job in pulling the boys over the rough spots.

Here's that hardworking group of kids that perform at all our football and basketball games, in assemblies, and at various civic events. The band made a fine showing in the district music festival and the Band Regalement. This year's band was outfitted with new red and black uniforms, and along with those eye catching twirlers, was just about the best-looking and best-sounding group in the country.

One of the highlights of the year waas the annual band and orchestra banquet where the instrumentalists of E. H. S. gathered to enjoy the usual good speeches, fine food, and each other's company.

Hats off to Mr. Wallingford and this year's officers: Jetta Purcell, president; Eleanor Shockley, vice-president; Bernice Daniel, secretary-treasurer.

Twirlers: Hatton, Brower, Moore, Robertson, Riggs; Basses: Daniel, Jones, Brown, Anderson; Baritones; Eckhardt, Waldorf, Luke; Drums: R. Sweeny, Jolliffe, Martin, C. Sweeny; Trombones: Linch, Nace, Smith, H. Gipson, Wall, Kimball, Bruse; Clarinets: Morti, Shockley, Gregerson, Brentton, Daniel, Hammer, Richey, Adrian, Lemasters, Barnes, Maus, D. Jolliffe, Adams, Y. Schmidt, Lockamy, Hollis, Green, Belk; Trumpets: Wichers, A. Gipson, McLean, Thompson, Rodgers, Seeber, Carp, Wintworth, Spires, Hayes, Thorburn; Flutes: Wesley, Stiller, Dewall, Rost; Sax: Clark, W. Kimball, Riggs, Harris, Feder; Bass & Alto Clarinet: Rebstock, Logan; French Horn: Hudson, Butler, Fisk; Director, R. W. Wallingford.

ORCHESTRA

Violins: L. Srader, Bruce, G. Wesley, West, Warren, Churchill, Abbot, Morgan, James, Lange, Banks, Cloyes, Schoneberg, Franklin, Ford, Bigler, M. Smith, Christy, Church; Director: R. W. Wallingford; Cornets: Wichers, R. Thompson, McLean; Bassoons; Thomas, Anderson, P. Riggs; Flutes: N. Wesley, Purcell, D. Smith; Oboe: Lenard, Metcalf; Clarinet: Godding, Cornwell, Morti, Shockley, Gregerson, Butler; Viola: Buhler, Stock, Grant, Woelk, Srader; Cello: Caldwell, G. Riggs, Schmidt, Fine, Harvey, Cooper; French Horn: Hudson, Rusum, Fisk; String Bass: Thompson, Sargent, Bass, Needham; Bass Horn: Daniels; Bass Drum: Jollifffe; Snare Drum: C. Sweeney; Kettle Drum: R. Sweeney. Not pictured: Elder, Casto, Deputy, McMillen, Morgan, Sherwood, Fabian, Martin, Fowler, Hayes.

Once more the familiar strains of "Aida March" float from the auditorium as the orchestra finishes a very successful year by playing for the graduation exercises. Not only has the orchesrta appeared at numerous assemblies and programs, but it also achieved recognition by earning a highly superior rating at the district music festival in Wichita. We must again pay tribute to Mr. Wallingford for his fine work and to this year's capable officers: Margaret Thompson, president; Gerry Buhler, vice-president; Janet Bigler, secretary-treasurer.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

The Class of '50 presented as its class play "Seventeenth Summer," adapted from the book by Maureen Daly. Although full of laughs, the play also had its more serious side during which the cast was at its very best.

The plot centered around "Angie," a teen-ager, and her first summer of romance.

Mr. Shaffer was the capable director; his assistants were Pearl Srader and Jim Lehr.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

"It's Spring Again," a laughable comedy, was efficiently presented by the Junior Class.

The well chosen cast included: Dorthy Ann Smith, Wilma Larkin, Vicky Mattix, Barbara Betty, Nellie Rost, Harriet Brown, Jim Trent, David Jolliffe, Joe Pat McAdoo, Bill Bright, Bill Warren, and Jack Neighbors.

Mr. Earl Saxon, director, was assisted by Janice Leonard and Mary Lou Myers.

Joya - Good luck to a swell girl - Helen Smith

JUNIOR HIGH PLAY

"Susie the Siren," an hilarious comedy, was capably presented by the Junior High School. The cast included: Margery Cornwell, Jerry Hughey, Nancy Rost, Tom Cour, Connie Cloyes, Geraldine Riggs, David Daniel, Charles Barlett, Ann Cook, Polly McGinnis, Sally Keith, Wayne Schoolfield, Paul Hawkins, Jr., Margaret Smith, Marilyn Smith and Richard Burch.

The play was centered around Susie, a teen-age girl, who succeeded in getting everyone, including herself, into trouble and out again.

Missees Helen Case and Vera Newcomer were the efficient directors.

ALL-SCHOOL PLAY

A complicated situation involving an amnesia victim provided plenty of laughs and excitement for the All-School Play, "Dangerous Decision."

The characters were aptly portrayed by the following students: Margie Miller, Harriet Myers, Wilma Larkin, Bernice Daniel, Becky Breese, Jean Bell, Lucille VanBeber, Beverly Stiller, Gene Elder, Jim Camron, Jim Trent, and Jim Barber.

Mr. Shaffer directed the outstanding performance.

DEBATE

3rd row—M. Hill, Harper, Gipson, Stiller, Cook, Moss, VanBeber, Mr. Shaffer.
2nd row—Grubb, Jolliffe, Miller, Trent, V. Hill, Dickson, McAdoo, Bacon.
1st row—Breese, Darnold, Houston, Barber, Moore, Bell.

Standing—Darnold, Mr. Shaffer, Breese.
Seated—Moore, Bell, Barber, Houston.

Again this year the Wildcat Debaters made an impressive record. They participated in tournaments at Newton, Hutchinson, Russell, Coffeyville, Topeka, Southwestern and Wyandotte. A first place trophy was won at Newton. They debated in the semi-finals at Hutchinson, but lost on a draw for the semi-finals at Russell and Topeka. Moore, Bell, Barber and Houston won second in the district and went on to win fourth place in the State Debate Tournament at Lawrence. Bill Moore received the highest speaker rating in the state at Lawrence.

We hope that next year's record will be as fine as the one achieved this year by Coach Shaffer and his debaters.

GRADUATES CUM LAUDE

To become a Graduate Cum Laude is the highest honor to be attained scholastically by high school students. On the basis of grades compiled during four years of high school, the upper ten percent of the class are eligible to become members of this group.

Congratulations are in order for the valedictorian, Larry Riggs, salutatorian, Jack Scott, and all the Graduates Cum Laude of 1950.

Memories

Memories—of pep rallies, pep club initiation, football games, the football game between the Junior and Senior girls, and the annual banquet to honor the football players.

Memories—of assemblies, especially the Christmas pageant; of square dances and the Pep Club Formal; yes, even of studying and reading in the library.

Memories—of basketball games, crowning the Basketball Queen, school parties, F. F. A. projects, Hi-Y banquet, and gym classes.

Memories—of the dance during Kayette Week, our efficient cheerleaders, those loyal couples, the twirlers, the faculty, our building, the Mother-Daughter banquet, and finally we shed tears with Wilbur B. as the end of high school days draws near.
